

Anne Marie Dean

May 19, 1953 - May 27, 2026

Anne Marie Dean, 73, passed away on May 27, 2026, in Austin, Texas. Anne was born on May 19, 1953, in Knoxville, Tennessee, to H.C. Dean, Jr. and Dolly Dean. She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Linda Susan Dean.

She is survived by her brothers, Charles and his wife, Teresa, of Austin; Terry Mark of Dallas; and Matthew and his wife, Judy, of Arizona. She is also survived by her niece, Melissa and her husband, James of Houston, along with their three children; and her nephew, Addison of Austin.

Anne dedicated much of her professional life to serving others through her work as an executive secretary for Texas A&M University. She was known for her diligence, organization, and unwavering commitment to her work.

Outside of her career, Anne found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She enjoyed needlework and crochet, often creating handmade treasures for those she loved. She was an avid reader, a devoted cat lover, and appreciated the quiet comfort of home. The special moments shared with Anne remain private but hold a cherished place in the hearts and memories of her family.

In accordance with her wishes, no funeral services will be held. Anne was cremated, and her ashes will be scattered in a beautiful garden. In lieu of flowers or other memorial donations, the family requests that those wishing to honor Anne's memory consider making a donation to a local animal rescue organization.

Anne will be remembered with love and gratitude by those who knew her, and her memory will continue to live on in the lives she touched.
