

Kenneth Alan Ittigson

July 10, 1967 - September 14, 2025

Kenneth (Ken) Ittigson, a beloved son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend, passed away on September 14, 2025, in Austin, Texas. He was 58 years old.

Born in 1967, in Detroit, Michigan, Ken spent his early years in Flint and Ann Arbor before moving with his family to Houston, Texas. He graduated from Jersey Village High School and eventually made his home in Austin, where he lived most of his adult life and found a city that truly felt like home.

Ken was known for his friendliness, his deep appreciation for music, and his love for the character and culture of “old Austin.” A passionate record collector, Ken’s vinyl collection numbered in the thousands at one point and often overflowed into every corner of his living room. He loved exploring record stores, attending record conventions, and sharing his discoveries with his friends and family.

Ken was a devoted friend and a dedicated family member. He was always up for a long phone call, catching up on life and reminiscing about the good old days. He often said that he had never met a stranger as he liked to talk and joke with everyone around him. Holidays with family, especially time spent with his nephews, were highlights in his life.

He is preceded in death by his father, Joel Ittigson. He is survived by his mother, Barbara Anthony; his brother, Andrew Ittigson; as well as aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss him dearly.

Ken’s presence will be deeply missed, but his memory will live on through the stories, music, and love he shared with all who knew him.

“ I just found out about this, and I'm heartbroken! I met Kenny at Dean Junior High and we immediately hit it off. Hanging out and riding bikes started a life-long friendship. When I joined the AF and moved away from Texas he was really the only person I kept in contact with. It's terribly sad to hear of his passing.
